December 2022

PIXELSTALK.NET

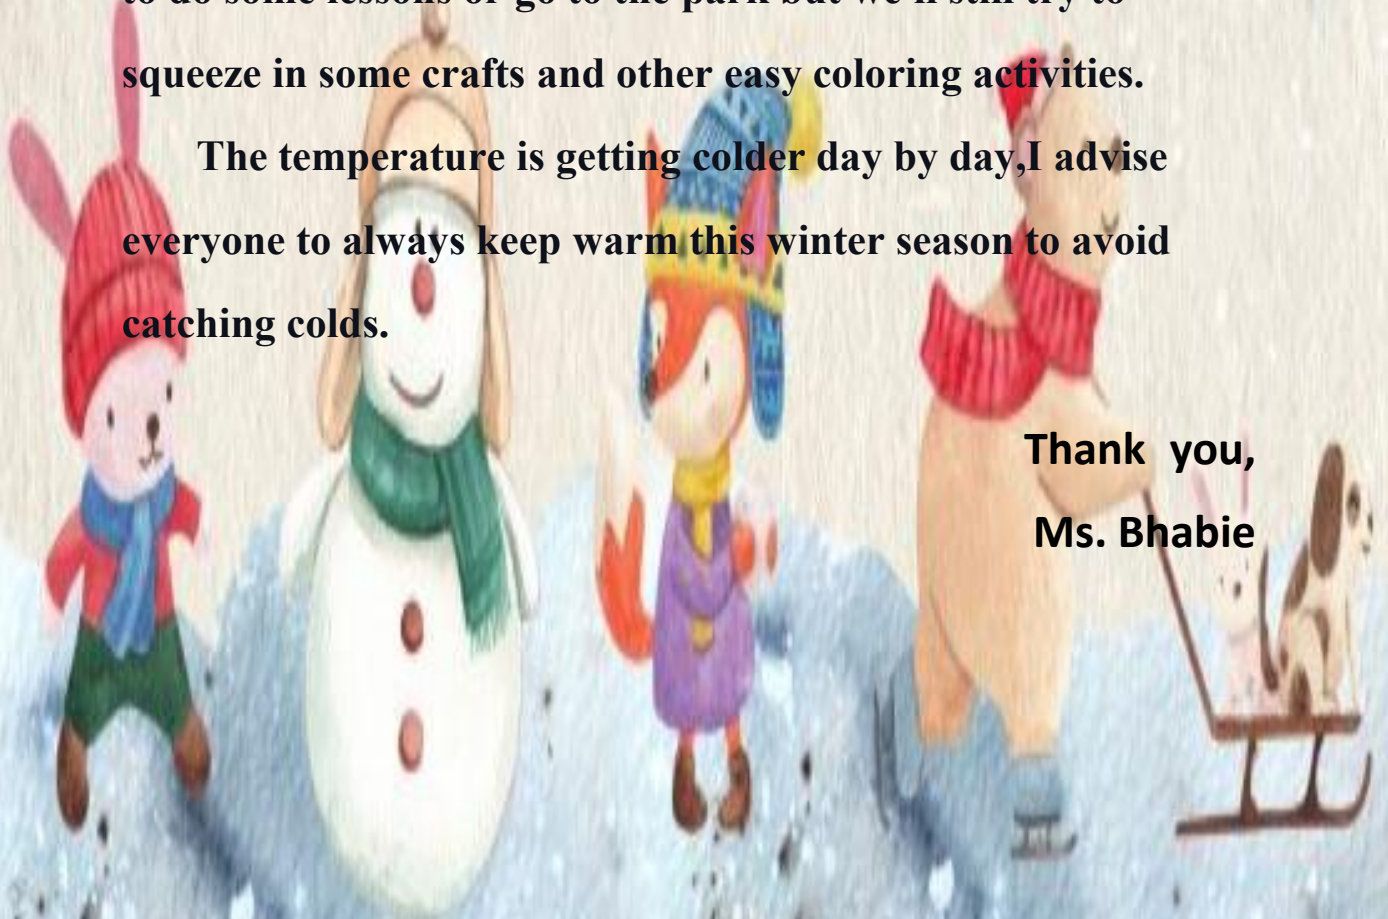

Dear parents,

Thank you for coming to our parent-teacher meeting. It is my pleasure to share with you the progress and behavior of your children at school. I'm happy we can share our thoughts and opinions about your child's development.

Christmas is here, the most awaited event of the year. This December is quite busy. Kids are all working very hard for their presentations. They're looking forward to seeing our special guest who will come to this special event. We will practice singing and dancing everyday, so we may not be able to do some lessons or go to the park but we'll still try to squeeze in some crafts and other easy coloring activities.

The temperature is getting colder day by day, I advise everyone to always keep warm this winter season to avoid catching colds.

Thank you,
Ms. Bhabie
