PIXELSTALK.NET

Dear parents,

Thank you everyone for coming to our parents and teachers meeting. It is my pleasure to tell you your kid's progress at school and I'm happy that together we are changing some ideas how to makes thing easy for them .Until next meeting.

Christmas is here, the most awaiting events of the year. This December is quite busy. The kids are all working very hard for their presentations and they are looking forward to see our special guest who will come to this special events. We will practice singing and dancing so we may not be able to do some lessons or go to the park but we will try to squeeze some crafts and other easy coloring activities.

The temperature is getting colder day by day, we advise everyone to always keep warm this winter season to avoid catching colds

Thank you,
Ms. Bhabie
